Additional comments:

Jennifer Smith-Ramey was a joy to work with, she displayed a high level of not only competence, but confidence. Jennifer is clearly an expert in clinical counseling and will easily become an expert in counselor education. Jennifer quickly adjusted to some of the nuances of teaching online and in a virtual synchronous format. One specific example, was not sharing the ppt presentation, but instead teaching with the notes on the side allowing for more direct interaction with the students and allowing for monitoring of student behavior and engagement. I look forward to continuing to work with Jennifer on future projects.
