Additional comments:

I have had a fantastic semester working alongside Professor Smith-Ramey. She was a great asset to our team, and I found her professionalism, clinical skills, and class management to be outstanding. She worked exceptionally well with her Ph.D. co-teacher and was quick to take the initiative in preparing for class time. Professor Smith-Ramey also worked diligently to provide beneficial clinical supervision during class and through reviewing students' videos. The students appreciated her insight, and I valued her clinical knowledge and skills in working with them. It was my pleasure to mentor her, and I look forward to seeing her future success as a counselor educator.
